

After School Program Volunteer Opportunity

About Girls in the Game

At Girls in the Game, every girl finds her voice, discovers her strength and leads with confidence through fun and active sports, health and leadership programs. Our year-round continuum of programs range from after school programs to summer camp to community outreach and serve girls ages 7-18.

Summary of Volunteer Position

Co-lead weekly programming for 25 girls on-site at a Chicago school, community center or park district; recruit program participants; attend intensive best practices and curriculum training. Each program requires 3 hours for planning, program facilitation and pick-up. We ask all volunteers to commit to a 10-week session of programming.

Qualifications

Experience leading groups of children/youth

Sports, health or leadership instruction experience strongly preferred

Spanish speaking a plus

Desire to learn new skills and work on a variety of projects

Familiarity with Microsoft Office

Available to work volunteer once a week, for 3 hours per week.

Note: Though this position is unpaid, students can use the hours for required internship hours if their school agrees.
